

Setlist for Long Ashton Apple Day
Sunday 7 October 2018

Below is Sunday 7th playlist for rehearsal beforehand ( assembled at 1.45 ready to play ) - likely to be some tweaks .

We are now back into indoor gigs which are joined up with a narrative about the season , customs of the time etc so as well as the playlist I have outlined ( in green ) where there are words .

Winter 'uniform' - autumn / winter colours / decoration on music stands - mail me if you are not sure . Liz

Apple Day : Autumn /Harvest

Spirit of the Dance : intro Roland count in boxes

Enrico: Harry

Poem : Fritjof

Words (Liz ) . Thanks for welcome to Long Ashton Apple Day which we will help you celebrate with tunes, songs dances and poems

Who we are . Where our tunes come from link with Thomas Hardy link with the agricultural year of 1850s; to pay tribute we will play 3 tunes celebrating these seasons

Speed the Plough : Intro:

Thrashing of the Oats intro:

Haymakers: intro

Harvest celebrations the gathering of crops ,was were second only to Christmas .In the West country there would be a Harvest supper with singing , drinking cider and dancing

Poem: Great things ( Cider and dance verses ) ;

Words : Cider making ( Hardy : 1873)

Singers: Here's a health. Apple Tree Wassail

BVB:

Fete Champetre

Black berry Quadrille

Apple Tree ( Hogmanay ) Jig

At a Harvest supper , the evening would finish with dancing- a key element of any gathering. ...

Words on dancing ( )

Liz ( words ) So finally now your turn to join in with some dancing Anne calling

Mr Holmes / Bonaparte Crossing the Rhine both x 2

New Rigged Ship / Soldiers Joy both x 2

In Reserve

Brighton Camp / Spirit of the Dance/ Highland Lad

Opera Hat / Fred Pigeons Triumph