

Horfield Community Orchard 2.00- 2.20 – Break
2.20 - 2.40 : 2.40 - 3.00/ 3.0 5:
Tunes dances and songs mostly from Hardy's Wessex

Draft

Rising of the Larks. x4 arr. Swift. Intro. Helen

Reading : Frances Kilvert wrote :

Mary On Easter Day all the young people come out in something beautiful and bright like butterflies . It is almost part of their religion to wear something new on this day . It is an old saying , that if you don't wear something new on Easter Day , that the crows will spoil everything you have on .

Summer hats x 4: Intro: Accordions / Roland
William Winter

Colin : Cider

' it was a proceeding I had always enjoyed from childhood – the apples being from huge old trees that have now long perished.. the sweet smells and ooziings can never be forgotten by those who have a hand in it .

(Up) Cider in the Morning: Intro. Chords Emin

Bonaparte Crossing the Rhine x Introd: Chords : Lyn and Chris / Bobbie/?

New Rigged Ship (Ben Rose) x 4 : intro: Helen (Ben Rose)

END FIRST HALF TEA and Cakes

SECOND HALF : Tunes celebrating a successful harvest

Lyn : Dancing was the only opportunity for young men to legitimately associate with young women :

Reading: Dancing Colin - hugely popular – for obvious reasons as one diarist wrote

Words ;(Colin) : Dancing, for the most part, is attended by many amorous smiles, wanton compliments, unchaste kisses, scurrilous songs and sonnets, effeminate music, lust provoking attire, and ridiculous love pranks .

Union Dance – Wiliam Winter

William Winters Waltz

Fred Pigeon

Song Let Union be

Encore: Helston Furry Dance / or Portsmouth

